Alumni Advisory Board - Excerpt from YANKTON COLLEGE Policies & Procedures Handbook - Section IV Part 1

The Alumni Advisory Board's primary function is to foster Yankton College alumni relations. Terms for service on the AAB are three years and voluntary in nature. Special expenses may be reimbursed with prior approval of the Operations Committee. The duties and responsibilities of the Alumni Advisory Board are as follows:

1. Develop constructive ideas as to how the office can be of service to the alums.
2. Help implement the forming of regional Yankton College groups.
3. Establish a group of volunteers who could help the alumni office with reunions, mailings and preservation.
4. Promote alumni participation in the funding of scholarships and other projects in higher education.
5. Continue the presenting of awards to alums for achievement, service and pro causa.
6. Elect a representative to the Yankton College Board of Trustees.
7. Encourage giving.
